

feeling physically equal to the effort, the pastor made a few remarks in his place. The evening session brought the crowd, composed largely of young people, the congregation about filling the house. After a Bible Reading by the pastor on "The Growth of the Kingdom," Prof. Beal gave a splendid address to the young people on "Open Doors." Then came the "best wine at the last of the feast." Prof. Miller's sermon, a most fitting close to the feast of good things, from the text "As the Father hath sent me, so send I you," closing with a very practical view of the true significance of money, what it represents,—brain, brawn, life, force—showing that as we give to the work of Christ, we in a sense give of our life: hence on the other hand, "Why spend ye your money for that which is not bread and your labor for that which satisfieth not."

Everyone seemed to be happy and the opinion prevailed, that "it pays to have missionary conventions." An offering was taken in the morning to cover the traveling expenses of the speakers. We regret that there were not more of our North Liberty friends present, but glad to see as many as were there, and among them brother Isaac Hess, of Butler.

J. ALLEN MILLER.

Sergeantsville, N. J.

We are glad to inform the readers of the EVANGELIST that we have a minister again after having been without one for about six months. We appreciate having a pastor, altho we have been highly favored with excellent meetings and visits from some of the Brethren, yet now we feel more at home. May the Lord bless Brother Bowman and family and help him to do much good in his new field of labor, and may we all give him a helping hand and each one try to do something for Jesus.

Prayer service will be held hereafter Friday evenings instead of Wednesday evenings. Communion services will be held on Sunday evening of this week.

A mite society was organized on May 1, with a membership of nineteen. The following officers were elected: Pres., Brother Myres. Sec., Lyna Fisher. Treas., Sister Bowman. Lookout Committee, Sisters Fauss, Witlock and Fisher. The society will meet the first Friday evening of each month.

The Sunday school is practicing for Children's Day which will be held the first Sunday in June.

LINA B. FISHER.

Hagerstown, Md.

There were five accessions to the Hagerstown, Md. congregation Sunday, May 11th, two more who are candidates for baptism will be received on the 18. The congregation is steadily growing, nine persons having united with it since the first of April, in addition to those who have come by letter. The pastor's mother, Mrs. L. L. Tombaugh, and his niece, Miss Nettie Tombaugh, of Washington, Pa., are visiting in Hagerstown.

A Liberal Proposition

My sympathies have been touched by the frequent appeals for help in the various interests of the brotherhood, and I long to contribute to each and all of them, if only I had the means to do so. And I might give my mite but for the debt incurred in the publication of the History of the Tunkers. But I'll tell you what I can and will do:

I'll give the proceeds less cost of sending of the first books sold in response to this proposition, to the following auxiliaries to the Brethren church:

To the General Missionary Committee, one book either style binding.

To the Chicago church Building Fund, one book either style binding.

To the Chicago Mission, one book either style binding.

To the Washington City Mission, one book either style binding.

To the Dayton City Mission, one book either style binding.

To the Ashland College Theological Fund, one book either style binding.

To the Ashland College Insurance Fund, one book either style binding.

To the saving of the suffering of India, two books either style binding.

For every book sold in addition to the one donated I will give one dollar to the cause in the interest of which it was purchased.

Books will be sent either by express or mail, on receipt of retail price; $3.00 for cloth binding, or $3.50 for full sheep. Be careful to designate to which purpose you wish to have your book credited and whether to send by mail or express, and in case of the latter fail not to give the county also. Lately I had an order to be sent to Middletown, Ohio. By reference to the State Directory it was discovered that there are just ten Middletowns in the State of Ohio, all in different counties, but only one postoffice of the same name.
